A note from Connie Renda, 2018 fall festival co-chair

Thank you to everyone who attended the fall festival on Saturday. The children had a wonderful day laughing and playing all the games. The class performances were fantastic! Each class has their own personality and it shined through each of their songs on Saturday. Even though I have been a parent at St. Didacus for 15 years, I still am amazed by our community. We all seem to do what it takes to pull everything together to benefit our school and our children.

A special thanks to my co-chair, Danielle Lauria who worked tirelessly to coordinate vendors, haul games and organize a great event. Thanks to our awesome “facilities engineer” Dirk Nasland and his team of dads, (including his own dad). Dirk secured lighting and ice and coordinated all the volunteers. Thanks to the set up and clean up crew: Robert Audiss, Peter Botz, Sean McKamey, Gebrelu Dessu, Steve Johnson, Dewayne Jones, The Fries family, Ana Franco, Jenny Nguyen, Jay Richardson, Diana Rivera and Bryanna Hernandez. During the event, thanks to Chris Cantore for TV delivery, the Knights of Columbus, Grace Patricio, the Ward family, Gunther and Linda Emathingier and Wiggins family for staffing and supplying the beer garden. Thank you to all parents who worked the booths!

Thanks to Theresa Gonzalez for shopping, cooking and serving the food. Thanks to Nancy and Anthony McDonald for providing special treats of popcorn and caramel apples and thanks to Cheryl and John Macalagay for the photo booth and cotton candy. Thanks to the Jaber family for providing the fruit. Thanks to Yvette Paden and Domini Renda for keeping Mrs. T’s special meatball tradition. Thanks to the Lopez family, Ortiz family and the Lay family (and their “Fil-Am” community) who worked many long hours to provide us with their delicious food!

To our PTG President, Tina Kessler for her many hours of assistance, from attending meetings to bringing her whole family to help with hot dog grilling, working the booth, stuffing envelopes, and running electrical cords around campus. We are lucky to have such a strong leader of our PTG.

A big thank you to Erin Potter and Sheila Gagiello for coordinating the high school volunteers. This is a huge undertaking with lots of moving parts! Thank you to Nikki Robinson for making hundreds of the stamp cards for the kids to wear. Thanks to Mary Kathleen Lindgren who quietly worked away for at least 25 hours over the weekend for setup, clean up and especially during the festival. Thanks to Susan Jones and all the room parents for coordinating all the booths, decorating and making the event so festive! All these parents were willing and helpful participants in this community endeavor.

Thanks to the finance crew-Mrs. Patterson, Jessica Occolini, Domini Renda, Michael Potter, and Kris Riley, Melanie Botz, Dennis Drab, Troy Gaglio and Peter Chotzko.

Thank you to Angela McGinnis for capturing the event in photos. Along with Eileen Lay we are so lucky to have the team to capture the memories of our children having a wonderful day!

Thanks to all the faculty and Mrs. Dean for staffing the ticket booths and giving up their Saturday to help.

Thanks to Mrs. Nguyen who worked the entire weekend preparing and cleaning our school. This is a messy event and she was as energetic as usual even on Sunday morning after a full shift on Saturday! We are so lucky to have her dedicated to our school! Mrs. Lepis didn't think the office could get any busier and then one of these huge events comes around and she's printing extra flyers, answering tons of extra phone calls and all with a smile. Thank you!

Thanks to all the parents who donated, helped and made this a great event!

Please complete the survey so we may better prepare and plan for next year's event.
